INFORMATION LETTER PURSUANT TO ART. 13 OF LEG. DECREE NO. 196/2003

Blindhouse Srl informs that the Leg. Decree no. 196, dated 30 June 2003 ("Personal Data Protection Code") provides the safeguard of people and other subjects as regards the processing of personal data. Pursuant to the mentioned regulation, such processing shall be performed with correctness, legality and transparency in order to safeguard Your privacy and Your rights. Therefore, we inform you that:

the data that you are providing shall be processed to:

- a. fully execute the contract that you have made and/or shall be made with Blindhouse;
- b. allow the performance of the contractual obligations;
- c. manage the relationship with sellers and buyers;
- d. carry out controls and evaluations about the sale relationship;
- e. perform tax, accounting and legal tasks;
- f. send also by email commercial information and other material
- as regards the activities carried out by Blindhouse.

Data will be processed through the use of electronic and computerized tools, as well as printed paper.

Delivering data is not mandatory, but refusing to do so might prevent Blindhouse from executing the contract and/or your requests.

Data shall not be disclosed to third parties or diffused.

Blindhouse Srl is responsible for the processing, through its legal representative Mr. Virgilio Marino, available at Blindhouse office located in Naples, via Caio Duilio 4/d, 10.

You are entitled to exercise your rights towards the responsible of the processing at any time, pursuant to art. 7 of Leq. Decree no. 196/2003, as reported below entirely:

Art. 7 - Right to Access Personal Data and Other Rights: 1. A data subject shall have the right to obtain confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him exist, regardless of their being already recorded, and communication of such data in intelligible form. 2. A data subject shall have the right to be informed a) of the source of the personal data; b) of the purposes and methods of the processing; c) of the logic applied to the processing, if the latter is carried out with the help of electronic means; d) of the identification data concerning data controller, data processors and the representative designated as per Section 5(2); e) of the entities or categories of entity to whom or which the personal data may be communicated and who or which may get to know said data in their capacity as designated representative(s) in the State's territory, data processor(s) or person(s) in charge of the processing. 3. A data subject shall have the right to obtain a) updating, rectification or, where interested therein, integration of the data; b) erasure, anonymization or blocking of data that have been processed unlawfully, including data whose retention is unnecessary for the purposes for which they have been collected or subsequently processed; c) certification to the effect that the operations as per letters a) and b) have been notified, as also related to their contents, to the entities to whom or which the data were communicated or disseminated, unless this requirement proves impossible or involves a manifestly disproportionate effort compared with the right that is to be protected. 4. A data subject shall have the right to object, in whole or in part, a) on legitimate grounds, to the processing of personal data concerning him/her, even though they are relevant to the purpose of the collection; b) to the processing of personal data concerning him/her, where it is carried out for the purpose of sending advertising materials or direct selling or else for the performance of market or commercial communication surveys.
